DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Note from the Director's Desk

Dear Parents / Guardians,

Welcome back to school for the new term. We are delighted to see our students return safely and with renewed energy.

I am pleased to inform you that all students have reported back well and learning has already commenced smoothly across all classes.

HEADTEACHER'S NOTE

As you may be aware, this will be a short term, marking the final stretch of our academic year.

Despite its length, it is a very important period as we focus on consolidating learning, completing the syllabus and preparing our students for end-of-year assessments and transitions to the next level.

Our key objectives for this term include reinforcing core concepts, nurturing independent learning skills and ensuring that every learner finishes the year strong and confident.

We also look forward to a couple of exciting upcoming events this term. On 22nd May, we will host a special Mbuzi Choma gathering for our K3 parents—an opportunity to connect, celebrate and engage as a community. Additionally, on 23rd May, we will hold our Parents Career Day, where we invite parents to share their professional experiences and inspire our learners by exposing them to a wide range of career paths.

Wishing you all a successful term ahead.

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Warm greetings from Pink Tower International School, and welcome to the Summer Term.

As we begin the final term of our academic year, I would like to express my sincere appreciation to all our parents, teachers, and staff for the continued partnership and dedication shown throughout the year. Your support has greatly contributed to the growth and success of our learners.

This term marks an important season of preparation and growth as we continue equipping our learners with the skills, confidence, and knowledge needed to transition successfully into their next classes. It has been truly rewarding to witness the tremendous progress our learners have made both physically and cognitively over the course of the academic year. Their resilience, curiosity, creativity, and enthusiasm for learning continue to make us proud as a school community.

I would also like to commend our teachers and support staff for their unwavering commitment in creating a safe, warm, and conducive learning environment where every child is encouraged to thrive and achieve excellence in both academic and co-curricular activities.

Recently, our learners participated in the Bikeathon Event hosted at Potter House School. We were proud to see them compete with great agility, confidence, discipline, and sportsmanship. Their performance reflected the values of teamwork, determination, and excellence that we continue to nurture at Pink Tower.

This Summer Term promises to be exciting and engaging, with a variety of activities lined up to celebrate culture, environmental conservation, creativity, and talent through various sporting and co-curricular events. We believe such experiences are essential in shaping confident, responsible, and well-rounded learners.

We are also looking forward to celebrating our K3 learners as they graduate at the end of this term. They have been a wonderful part of the Pink Tower family, and we cannot wait to honor and celebrate this important milestone alongside them and their families.

To all our parents and guardians, thank you for your continued trust and support. Your partnership motivates us to continue providing the best educational experience for our learners.

As we journey through this final term together, I remain confident that it will be productive, memorable, and successful for every member of our school community.

Warm regards,

Ezekiel Musera
